

Call for Arts Administration/ Social Work Interns

Circus Harmony, St. Louis' only social circus, is seeking arts administration and social circus interns who already have or want to develop the following skill sets, and who want to be part of an organization that helps children defy gravity and other limitations:

- Non-profit Administration
- Grant writing and Development
- Social Work--- especially with youth
- Videography
- Graphic design
- PR/Marketing
- Costume Design

Qualifications

- Currently in school for arts administration or social work
- Wants to make a difference in the world starting with individuals
- Interested in long term placement with an arts organization that serves youth
- Interested in working with students of all ages, abilities and backgrounds
- Has tremendous communication skills: verbal and written
- Digitally adept
- Is organized, reliable and responsible
- Can work independently and as part of a team
- Has common sense and a sense of humor

We are looking for student interns who would like to learn while working and help develop a long-term place for themselves in our company.

If interested, please visit www.circusharmony.org and www.facebook.com/circusharmony to learn more about us, and then contact Jessica Hentoff at circusday@circusharmony.org with cover letter, resume and three references.

